Introduction

‘Making A Class Agreement’ Is To :

Empower Students To Become Involved In
Creating Their Own Positive Class/School
Environment.

Making A Class Agreement

- This Lesson Involves A Consultation With You The Students.
- The Teacher Can Provide Practical And Moral Support.

Identifying Unacceptable Behaviours

- We Are Going To Make An Anti-Bullying Agreement For Our Class.
- First, We Need To Decide And Agree Which Behaviours Are Unacceptable. (See drafting the class agreement)

Feedback On Board

Brainstorm The Behaviours On The Board.

- N.B. It Is Important That All Students Agree On The Unacceptability Of The Behaviours.

The Behaviours That Are Mentioned Most Will Form The Basis Of Their Class Anti-Bullying Agreement.

Group Anti-Bullying Agreement

To Stop Bullying As A Class

1. List Three Things You All Agreed You Will Do.
2. List Three Things You All Agreed You Will Not Do.

Sample Agreement

Our Class Agrees That: We Will

1. Treat Each Other And Our Teachers With Respect.
2. Respect One Another's Feelings.
3. Try To Make Everyone Feel That They Belong.

We Will Not

1. Physically Hurt Others.
2. Spread Rumours Or Lies.
3. Leave Others Out Or Ignore Them Deliberately Or Turn People's Friends Against Them.

All Students Are Invited To Sign The Class Agreement And It Should Be Displayed Prominently In The Classroom For The Rest Of The World To See.

Put The Agreement On The Wall

- Transfer Your Agreement To An A3 Size Piece Of Paper And Put On The Wall In Class.
- Find A Spot On The Wall To Hang The Agreement.
- This Is to Help Remind You About The Agreement If It Has Been Broken.
